

Cheryl Cytrynbaum is a board certified genetic counsellor practicing at The Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto, Ontario. Cheryl received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Human Genetics from the McGill University in 1988 and her Master of Science Degree in Medical Genetics from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1990. She was certified in Genetic Counselling by the American Board of Medical Genetics in 1993. Cheryl is a Lecturer in the Department of Molecular Genetics at the University of Toronto as well as a clinical supervisor to students in the M.Sc Program in Genetic Counselling. She holds a Project Director appointment in the Genetics and Genomic Biology Program at the Hospital for Sick Children Research Institute. Cheryl has been involved in the care of patients with 22q11 Deletion Syndrome for over 25 years.